The Wall Street Exchange (WSE) committee held its first alumni reunion on November 18 at the Ainsworth Midtown. The program, which is co-chaired by Kamellia Saroop and Marline Alexander, invited cohorts from 2010 to 2015 to the event to reconnect, network, and engage with FWA. Approximately 40 graduates attended. The event was coordinated by Ariel Siegel, FWA Program Manager. The membership committee was represented by Petrina DiGangi who welcomed the students and recent graduates.

2016 will mark the 30th anniversary of the Wall Street Exchange, which has had over 1,000 students graduate from program. WSE continues to have an engaged network of past graduates and the College Connections/WSE committee looks forward to inviting alumni to more of its events.
