On Tuesday, June 5th, the FWA Baruch Mentoring Program celebrated its 16th Annual Closing Dinner in the conference center at Baruch College. More than 70 dedicated mentors, ambitious mentees, and guests were in attendance. This year, the program recognized its 15th graduating class and has reached a major milestone with more than 250 alumnae to-date.

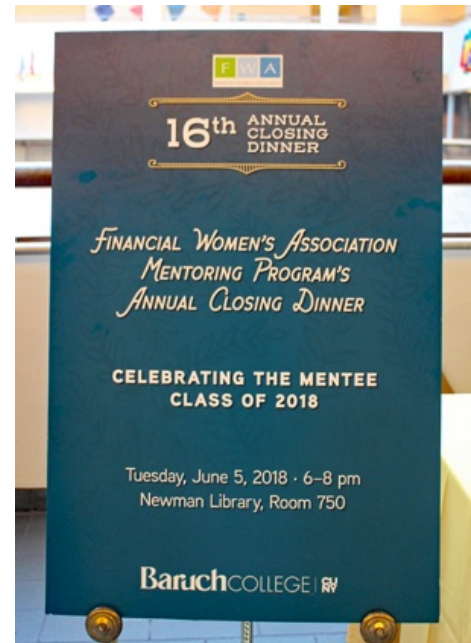

At this year's dinner, Zicklin School of Business, Dean, Fenwick Huss and FWA President, Stacy Musi, welcomed the crowd and thanked our mentors and President's Circle Sponsor, BMO Capital Markets, for funding the mentoring program and providing educational opportunities for students since 2005.

During the dinner, mentees shared words of appreciation for their mentors and their commitment to lifelong relationships. Students of the year-long program expressed how the FWA has positively impacted their academic and professional development.

Please join us in recognizing our devoted FWA mentors with 5 or more years of service, that have committed their time, energy and efforts to guiding and supporting future women leaders.
